

Workshop: Extractive Zones, 16-17 May 2024, University of Cologne
DFG-Network “Energy and Literature“, in Collaboration with MESH
Location: Erich Auerbach Institute for Advanced Studies, Library, 3rd Floor
Weyertal 59 (Back Building) 50937 Cologne
Contact: victoria.herche@uni-koeln.de
<https://energyandliterature.wordpress.com/events/>

16 May 2024

13.30 Introduction: Victoria Herche, David Kern & Antonia Villinger

14.00-15.30 Defining Energy: Discussion
Chair: Burak Sezer (Köln/Dortmund)*

15.30-16.00 Coffee Break

16.00-17.30 Extractive Zones

Katie Ritson (Munich): Storyfuel: Petroculture in the North Sea

Peri Sipahi (Bonn): Archives of Nuclear Waste: Ruth Ozeki's “A Tale for the Time Being” and the Leaky-ness of the Transpacific

17.30-18.00 Coffee Break

18.00-19.30 Public Zoom Keynote Elizabeth Carolyn Miller (UC Davis): Energy, Extraction, and the Literature of the Long Exhaustion

Conference Dinner

17 May 2024

9.00-10.00 internal network meeting

10.00-12.00 Keynote: Ben Anderson (Keele): The Great Deceleration: Carbon Culture and 21st Century Heritage

12.00-13.00 Lunch

13.00-14.30 Energy Infrastructures

Anna Seidel (Berlin): Oil Narratives. Success and its Cost in Early Petrofictions from Eastern Galicia

Julia Ditter (Konstanz): Energy Infrastructures in the Nineteenth-Century Periodical Press

14.30-15.00 Final Discussion

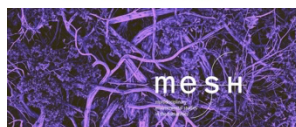

*Please prepare the following texts for the discussion (information coming soon)

UNIVERSITY OF COLOGNE

Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg

Erich Auerbach Institute for Advanced Studies